BAND SCORES TOP HONORS AT MARCHING CONTEST

The Comanche High School Indian Band, under the direction of Jack King, made it two years in a row to receive two Division I ratings at the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest. This year the contest was held at San Angelo, and some fifty bands participated in the all-day Saturday, Nov. 16 event at the public schools stadium.

Bands are not in direct competition with each other but are given ratings of from I to V, with I being the best rating. The I rating means superior marching and playing.

The band was judged by three marching specialists—Bill Woods of Levelland, J. W. King of Hale Center, and Dr. Gary Garner of West Texas State University in Canyon.

Some of the tunes played by the Indian Band included the TCU Fight Song, Happy Days Are Here Again, March of the Olympians, Symbol of Honor March, Swinging on Parade, and the musical score of Giant.

The Indian Band was accompanied by approximately 40 enthusiastic adults—including parents, former students, and other fans. "We were extremely proud of the performance of the Indian Band in San Angelo Saturday", commented Director King. "It is a great bunch of students who always come through for Comanche High School, and it is our aim to help keep it this way. Our thanks to everyone for the tremendous support our band has had this year."

Local Horse Wins World Championship

Dandy Domino, Appaloosa stallion, owned by Houston (Bally) Robertson, Rt. 3, Comanche, added a new championship to his honors last week whn he won the World's Champion Junior Cutting Horse award as Las Vegas, Nevada. Dandy has previously won the right to compete in this championship contest by winning the Central Texas Appaloosa Junior Championship which was awardsd to the horse winning the most points for the past year in Central Texas.

In the Las Vegas contest, Dandy Domino competed against champion horses from thirty-three states and three provinces of Canada, and amassed the most points on two go-rounds. Although the junior age horses did not compete against the seniors, Dandy totaled four more points than the winning senior horse. The Taunderbird Hotel of Las Vegas presented Robertson a solid gold and silver belt buckle as well as a silver tray engraved for the winning horse.

Robertson's horse has won some twenty trophies and numerous ribbons for his performances in cutting and halter, and has never entered a show that he did not place in both these events. He received a hand tooled leather album for winning the Central Texas Cutting Championship.

Dandy Domino was purchased in 1961 at the Appaloosa Sale of the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo from Johnson-Meyer of Wharton. He received his early training from Ardell Ellis, Comanche, who also started him on his cutting training. For the past campaign, Bob Collins, nationally known trainer, rider and judge of San Saba, has been handling the horse. Robertson has ridden him to some wins in Central Texas the past year when Collins was unable to make a show.

A&P To Re-Open Here Tuesday

The A&P Super Market, damaged by a Sunday afternoon, Oct. 27 fire, will reopen for business Tuesday morning, Nov. 26, according to announcement from Jimmy Warren, local manager.

"We thank friends and customers for their indulgence while our store was being completely remodel," says Manager Warren, adding that details will be given in a special notice in next week's issue of The Chief.

The fire, of undetermined origin, did considerable damage to the A&P, located at 1001 W. Central. Good work by the fire department kept the loss at a minimum, and confined the actual blaze primarily in the meat market department.

After a two-day fire sale, work began immediately in cleaning up and restoration of the building.

The store has been restocked with all new merchandise — and with a full crew of workmen doing a good job in remodeling operations, only four weeks of time was actually lost. The A&P, in operation here since 1927, moved into its new location and modern building at 1001 W. Central Ave. last February.

Letha Dunn, Kay Burton, and Dorothea Byrd were the nominees for DAR Girl of the 1963-64 school year; with Dorothea being named the winner by the CHS faculty.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution gives an annual award of $100 US Savings Bond or a $75 scholarship in lieu of the bond to a senior girl in each state who posseses to an outstanding degree the four qualities: DEPENDABILITY, SERVICE, LEADERSHIP, and PATRIOTISM.

NEW HOMECOMING QUEEN BEGINS REIGN OF '63-64

Presented Saturday night, November 9 in the pre-game activities was Miss Lou McCullough, Homecoming Queen of 1963-64. At noon on Thursday, November 7 the Student Council sponsored the queen election in the main hallway of Comanche High School.

Candidates were Miss Letha Dunn, Kay Burton, and Miss Lou McCullough. Presiding over the box were the four class presidents, Donald Fiest, senior; Jerry Willis, junior; David Cox, sophomore; and Rusty Hall, freshman, and Student Body President, Jerry Foreman.

The announced homecoming audience and three breathless senior candidates patiently waited for the queen to be revealed. Following the announcement, a very happy Miss Lou McCullough was escorted into the field by Jerry Foreman, Student Body President, while in the background the Comanche Indian Band played "Autumn Leaves".

There was tremendous applause, as she was presented with the traditional mum and a bouquet of red roses, thus officially becoming the 1963-64 Homecoming Queen of Comanche High School.

Lou, a senior in CHS, is active in school affairs. She is a member of the Comanche Indian Band and Color Guard, secretary of the Pep Club, a member of the Student Heritage Club, and secretary of the Spanish Club.

Homecoming seems to run in the McCullough family. Lou's older sister, Mrs. C. M. Caraway, Jr., was also Homecoming Queen

It may be later than you think. Thursday of next week is Thanksgiving Day and there are now just 27 more shopping days until Christmas.

Already some of the stores have begun to display their Christmas specials and to put out Christmas decorations.

—o—

With good rains having fallen in most every part of the county the spirits of the people as a whole have brightened during the past several days. A rain nearly always hurts some people, especially the farmers who have peanuts in the field, but it helps more than it hurts.

Nothing is more discouraging than to drive over the county and see nothing green in pastures and fields. With a good season in the ground and at least some water in stock tanks and plenty in the Comanche lakes, things will look greener and better in a few days as you travel over the county.

Most peanut farmers report the peanut crop shorter than last year, but the pecan crop is botter and the outlook for the future is optimistic.

What has helped the rancher much this year is the practical elimination of the screwworm curse in the county.

—o—

It has been unofficially reported that the population of the City of Comanche has passed the 4,000 mark for the first time in history and new highway population markers will be placed at the city limits giving the exact number based on a formula used by the State Highway Department.

New residences in the towns and rural districts of Comanche County continue to go up. It seems that all the carpenters and other builders of the county are busy. Road constructions and public work has fallen off since the virtual completion of the Proctor Reservoir, but new road contracts are expected to be let soon.

The Commissioners Court has asked for several new roads in the county and the hard surfacing of the new lateral roads in the Proctor Reservoir area are expected to get underway soon.

—o—

We don't hear very much any more about Civil Defense nor the building of home shelters in order to protect ourselves and friends and neighbors in case of an enemy all-out attack to destroy us.

And maybe it is just as well. Why worry about things we cannot help?

Maybe the Preesbyterians are right in their doctrine, "Whatever is to be will be, and we can't do anything about it."

But while we are not personally doing anything individually about Civil Defense, Uncle Sam is busy at Colorado Springs, according to the following in The Yuma Daily Sun, as outlined by Jones Osborn:

"Uncle Sam has the ability to strike back at Colorado Springs. That is what prevents an aggressive nation from attacking us. They can't survive retaliation, and they know it.

"No one understands that better than the officers and men at Colorado Springs where the air defense of North America is directed.

"The duty of the command at Colorado Springs is to provide early warning; to shield the bases of our retaliatory forces (our big bombers) and to protect the industrial and population centers in the U. S. and Canada.

"But we would be seriously crippled if the central nervous complex of this defense was knocked out.

"The Central Nervous Complex is located at Colorado Springs in a two story concrete block house. But it would not survive a near hit in nuclear war. Therefore it is going underground.

"The U. S. and Canada are building a complete, self contained 'city' deep inside a mountain just eight miles north of Colorado Springs in solid granite.

"Yes, that is right. In solid granite, they have blasted out three miles of tunnels inside of a mountain just eight miles from Colorado Springs.

"In solid granite they have blasted out three miles of tunnels and chambers, 1200 to 1500 feet below the crest of the mountain.

"Into these chambers they are building 11 all-steel building where some 700 men will work.

"A typical building is three stories high, and from 25 to 40 feet wide, and from 98 to 324 feet long.

"Every building rests on coiled steel springs, standing about three feet high and 26 inches in diameter.

"It is said that these springs would absorb any shock that might get through 1200 feet of solid granite.

"When completed in 1965, this underground structure will provide domitories, kitchens, infirmary, electric and diesel power generation, maintenance shops, water and air condition units, office and warehouse space.

"And very important, there would be space for electric computing machines which make the split second calculations for the aerial defense of North America.

While all these defense measures are going on in the Northwest, new Polaris Missile bases are launching tests at Cape Canaveral, Florida, according to an Associated Press article.

—o—

"The Navy's third-generation Polaris A3 missile passed its first underwater submarine launching test and U. S. officials hailed the success as a major step towards bringing all land areas of the world within range of the Polaris Submarine Fleet.

"A Navy spokesman said 95 percent of all land areas in the world can be reached by the earlier missiles. He noted, however, that a section of Russia near Outer Mongolia is out of range.

"Recently the nuclear-powered submarine, Andrew Jackson, fired the long range A3 while cruising submerged about 30 miles off Cape Canaveral and the bullet-shaped rocket performed flawlessly on a 2,300-mile stroke down the Atlantic tracking range.

—o—

"Some people have wondered why the Cross Plains School flies both the U. S. and the Texas flags on its school campus," says the Cross Plains Review, which adds:

"Failure to have the Texas Flag rippling in the breeze when a state inspector arrives on the campus for an impromptu call, subject to a school to possible loss of state funds for education."

—o—

Oldest oil well in this section which has been in continuous production is at Pioneer in Eastland County where the Bud Nunn well has been producing for more than 40 years.

—o—

The coldest day on record in this part of Texas was January 13 and February 12, 1899, when the temperature on these dates reached the low of 15 degrees below zero.

The hottest day on record was Sunday, June 30, 1900, when the temperature soared to 110.

—o—

The Cross Plains Ministerial Association has gone on record as opposing games of chance in any form, including cakewalks and bingo. "The passion to acquire something for nothing is a serious threat to our society today, and undermines basic moral laws as well as established economic laws, and is a menace to the morals of the youth and adults as well," says a resolution adopted by the ministers.

A similar resolution was adopted by the ministers of Cisco.

From An Exchange: "Four of our citizens recently returned from a deer hunt in Colorado. They brought back one buck between them. The deer was shot 20 times—hit with six bullets—but finally killed by being beaten over the head with clubs by the four excited nimrods."

—o—

"Brady man finds hot check costly," says an exchange. The 26-year-old Brady man was arrested and convicted in County Court at Baird in Callahan County for having given a $10 hot check. He paid a fine of $112.50 and served three days in jail and made good the $10 check.

The 1963 football season for high schools will be over this weekend, except for those schools which have won or will win their district championships and are in or will be in the play-offs—but the basketball season is just beginning.

"The Interscholastic Leaguer," the official organ for the schools which take part in TIL football, basketball, track, and other minor sports, as well as school literary contests, says there needs to be a re-emphasis of the values and merits of the school athletic games.

Today there is a growing tendency for youth to become physically softer. We need the help of all, in encouraging students to devote themselves to a program which requires rigid discipline and control of their attitudes, emotions, and physical habits.

There is no greater opportunity offered by the public school curriculum for improving the physical, mental and emotional discipline than is found in the school games, especially football and basketball and track.

During this time of tension which is spreading over the whole world, we need to develop citizens who have the ability to make self-sacrifice, to think in time of emergencies, and to learn the values of developing and maintaining strong and healthy bodies.

If America is not careful in training their youth in school, we may develop a 'pot plant' generation of youths who will not be able to meet the stress and strain of modern day living.

The school and the community are rendering a worthwhile service, by providing a sound, educational competitive interscholastic athletic program that is varied enough to meet the likes and dislikes of all students.

Some boys do not like to play football and that is their right and privilege. We do not believe that any students should be made to engage in any sport he does not wish to engage in.

But there are other sports he can take part in, such as basketball, track, tennis, golf, etc. Probably there are more pupils in the United States who play basketball than there are who play football.

The "Interscholastic Leaguer" points out that the school and community are rendering a worthwhile service by providing a sound, educational competitive interschool athletic program.

The parents, as well as the students and the public in general should be thankful that there is a program in Texas schools requiring rigid discipline to achieve success.

Youth can't find a program with better organized supervision and trained personnel than is to be found in the schools of Texas under the supervision of the Interscholastic League, which is made up mostly of the high school executives, school boards and coaches of Texas.

Yet the parents' co-operation is necessary. They are the most important connecting link between their child and the school. Most students still look to their patents for their final decision on how much work, effort and co-operation that they are going to put into the program.

—o—

The parents should be thankful that there is still a program in school requiring rigid discipline to achieve success.

Where can you find a program with better organized supervision than is required in school athletics, including the school band and its organization? They all go together hand in hand.

Where else can you find more equipment and facilities available for the protection and welfare of a child than is found in your school gymnasium, field house, band hall, agriculture shop, home economics building, and headquarters for other school activitiese?

The parents have a prime responsibility in the training, guidance, and direction of their child's mental, physical and social attitude toward school activities.

Most parents realize that they have a prime responsibility in the training, guidance and direction of their child's mental, physical and social attitude towards school activities.

Parents can make a great contribution to their children's education and to the school's activity program by indoctrinating their children to the effect that it is a privilege and an hon to be a member of the importa school organization of whatev nature, provided it is sanction by the school authorities and pu lic morals.

50,046 Sign Up For "Texas 65" Health Insurance

H. Lewis Rietz, president of the Texas 65 Health Insurance Association, announced Thursday that 50,046 Texans, 65 years of age and over, acquired broad health insurance protection under the Texas 65 program during its initial enrollment period in October.

In announcing the final enrollment figures, Ritz stated, "this outstanding record of initial enrollment during October points up the need for, and justification of the over-65 program. The public support and appreciation of benefits offered, the unselfish cooperation of insurance agents, professional groups, and the generous support of the news media in Texas combined to achieve this gratifying record of enrollment."

Sixty-one insurance companies are participating to make the program possible in accordance with special legislation enacted this year and signed by Governor John Connally.

No further open enrollment periods have been scheduled at this time, but they will be held at infrequent intervals in the future, Rietz stated.

He reminded Texans turning 65 after October 31 that they may enroll in the plan within 31 days following their 65th birthday. Those who were 65 and over during October must wait until the next open enrollment period to purchase Texas 65.

Texas is the fourth state to offer a 65 program. New York enrolled 107,000 during its initial enrollment period. Massachusetts enrolled 49,897 and Connecticut 21,850 during their first enrollment periods.

Memphis wins new Textile Plant

Today, because of aggressive leadership, this Texas Panhandle town boasts an active new textile plant making sheets for national distribution. What is more important, the plant's parent company is the world's largest manufacturer of textiles using all known fibers.

This new industry is the Hall Plant of Foster Cotton Mills, a unit of Burlington Industries, Inc. It is designed to have in excess of 100 employees, mostly women, and is an important addition to the economy of this 3500 population community. It is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion, perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.

CHEVROLET
Which type Chevrolet pickup do you need?

Chevrolet now makes four different types, each with its own distinct advantages. Whichever one you buy will be a lot more truck than your money bought the last time!

FLEETSIDE. Based on sales, the best liked pickup in the world. Outstanding feature is its large body extending clear out over the wheels. Two body sizes. Two wheelbases. Best riding truck, by far, with coil springs all around and independent front suspension. Cab and body have double-wall construction. Chevrolet Fleetside—best for all-around use.

STEPSIDE. Has flat interior body walls and convenient side steps between cab and rear fenders. Comes in same two sizes as the Fleetside plus one bigger size. Big model has heavier frame, 4-speed transmission and leaf-spring rear suspension for maximum payloads. Standard engine is 230-cu.-in. Six. A 292 Six or 283 V8 is available at extra cost.

RAMPSIDE. Nobody else makes a pickup exactly like this one with a ramp at the side. The ramp makes loading easy because of its 16-inch rise. Truck also has a conventional tailgate. Body and frame-floor assembly are very rigid because they are welded together. Has larger 95-hp air-cooled engine this year. Independent coil spring suspension all around.

EL CAMINO. If you want a pickup as good looking as any car on the road, this is the one! It can work hard, and look like a million dollars doing it—the only pickup in the world with Body by Fisher! You can order an El Camino as plain or as fancy as you wish: bucket seats, air conditioning, 4-speed transmission, power brakes are some of its extra-cost options.

De Leon Bearcats Edge Indians 18-13

The De Leon Bearcats escaped the cellar in the 8-AA race by coming from behind in the final quarterquarter, and ending the Comanche Indians 18-13—inflicting the 10th straight loss on the local gridders this season.

A good sized crowd was on hand to witness this renewal of the ancient Comanche County rivalry—and saw an interestingly played, hotly contested game.

De Leon opened the scoring early in the second period—going out in front 6-0 as Sophomore Bearcat Mike Smith skirted his own right end for the tally. The try for the extra points failed.

The Indians struck back quickly, and in two pass plays covered 57 yards to get the tying touchdown. Big play was a Quarterback Donald Feist to End Charles McNutt pass play which covered 50 yards. Billy Williams' kick for the extra point was wide, and the score was tied at 6-all.

The Cats reeld off three straight first downs after taking over at midfield, to go out in front 12-6 at half-time. Donny Sharp got the touchdown from 6 yards out. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

Comanche missed a chance to knot the count on the kick-off to start the third quarter of play, when Feist booted the ball over the goal line, which the Bearcats failed to cover, and Indian Tommy Willis fell on it for an apparent touchdown. But an offside penalty nullified the play, the Indians were penalized 5 yards, and had to kick-off again.

Comanche drove for eighty yards with Jerry Foreman, senio rhalfback, turning in his longest gainer of the season, a beautiful 50 yard scamper, to set up a first down on the Bearcat 30. Larry Harbour and Rickie Henry alternated in carrying to pick up a first down at the twenty. Feist passed to Don Kemmitz for 15 to the 6—and from there Harbour bulled his way over into pay dirt. Williams booted the extra point to put the Indians out in front 13-12.

Comanche came back with another scoring opportunity early in the final period—driving for 50 yards to the Bearcat 6. The Indians were set back to the 21 with a fifteen yard penalty—as Larry Bonner crashed into the end zone, with the gain nullified by the penalty. Henry got 10 to the 12, Harbour picked up 4 to the 8—theen two passs were incomplete, and the Cats took over.

Here De Leon mounted a drive of its own—and in 10 plays rolled 92 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. A Gary Bulison to Billy Lamb pass covered the final 15 yards.

The Indians tried vainly to put together another scoring effort and rolled for three first downs, before losing possession on the Bearcat 40 on a fumble.

Comanche's porous defense gave up 16 first downs, while the Indians were picking up 11. In the passing department, Comanche completed 5 passes for 85 yards, while De Leon gained 60 yards via the aerial route. De Leon picked up 277 yards on the ground to Comanche's 225—and ran a total of 67 plays, while the Indians had the ball on offense for 48 efforts.

Harbour, Feist, and Foreman led Comanche's offense—while the work of Foeman, Feist, Skipper Shumpes, and McNutt stodd out on defense.

Comanche Countians Attend State Farm Bureau Convention

by HUGH O'BRIEN, President, Comanche County Farm Bureau.

Last week the Texas Farm Bureau held its annual convention at Fort Worth. Those attending from Comanche County were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pyburn, Mrs. Maxine Barret, Bernice Stokes, Pat Murphy, and Hugh O'Brien.

At this the largest convention in our history, there were over 1,500 registered in and of whom 807 were voting delegates. For the last 10 years Farm Bureau has gained in membership. We now have 89,401 farm families in Texas, and according to the Dallas News, roughly 30 times as large as any other farm organization in the state.

At our convention, we were privileged to hear some outstanding speakers: the annual address of C. H. DeVaney; Congressman Kilgore of the 15th District; Mr. McLean, of the National Farm Bureau Federation; Mr. Rand of Mississippi as guest speaker at our banquet, and Gov. Connally. Also there was a panel discussion led by Walt Myer, our Foreign Trade Expert, with Dr. Timms, head of Agricultural Economics at A&M, Michael Daniel of Washington, D. C., Legislative Member of U.S.-Japanese Trade Council, and Ted Lange, Coordinator of International Banking with the First National Bank of Fort Worth.

After the speaking, the delegation got down to the business of the session, considering, discussing and voting on the various resolutions submitted by the various county organizations of the state. The resolutions finally approved by majority vote become the policies of the organization for this coming year.

Our steady growth in members, both in Texas and in the nation, reflects our growing influence on legislation, both state and national, but we believe the influence we exert is not confined to members only, though they are important, but the policies we stand for, the principles we believe in, that attracts support from other segments of our economy. I believe we are the largest organization in America, today, farm or otherwise, that is pledged to support the free enterprise system. In order for the free enterprise to work, we believe that Government controls should be restrained rather than expanded: that where controls are necessary, or desirable, they should be exercised along the lines of sound economic policies, not political expediency, that will insure the moving of goods and commodities into the markets.

We invision the day not in the too distant future, when our exploding population and expanding world markets will bring every acre now out of production back into production at a fair price. We are alarmed over the ever expanding National Debt. We believe thee (tax and sped) for prosperity practiced by the last several administrations, is a false concept that will lead to the fulfillment of the predictions of the Communists that we would spend ourselves into bankruptcy, and they could then take over.

We believe that Congress, as representatives of the people, should take steps to curb the practice of the executive branch to enact laws by executive orders, and to curb the practice of the Supreme Court to legislate by judicial decision.

Upon these and other sound economic principles we take our stand and invite all others of like views to join with us in opposing all Socialistic and Communistic influences that has been creeping into our body politics and economic system.

Mr. J. C. Wilkerson
Comanche, Texas

Dear Mr. Wilkerson:

Your editorial concerning the Comanche Public Library has just been read and "digested".

Please allow me through you to contribute $25.00 to that cause, in memory of my late wife. She will be remembered as Miss Cordie Lindsey, for 23 years, 1915 to 1938, a teacher in the primary schools of Comanche.

I would have given some of the choice books from her personal library, but they already gone into the library of her church.

I am glad the rising generation of Comanche has a nice library to look to. I didn't.

Sincerely,

Cotton Vote December 10

Just what a "Yes" or a "No" vote will mean in the Dec. 10 referendum on cotton marketing quotas was explained today by William F. Bryant, Chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1963 are eligible to vote in the referendum. The Chairman said that the basic program choices are:

1. If at least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve of quotas, then the quotas will be in effect for the 1964 upland cotton crop, marketing penalties will apply to any 'excess' cotton produced on a farm, and price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

2. On the other hand, if more than one-third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1964 upland cotton crop, and price supoprt to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity, as directed by law.

Allotments are not affected by the outcome of the balloting. They wil lremain in effect—whether or not quotas are approved—as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support.

Chairman Bryant pointed out that, while the Secretary of Agriculture is directed by law to proclaim quotas for the next crop when the total cotton supply exceeds normal, it is the growers themselves who decide whether or not quotas shall be used.

Previous votes on the subject have been outstandingly favorable. Marketing quotas for the 1963 upland cotton crop were approved by 93.7 percent of the growers voting.

Allotments for individual farms will be made available to growers, so that farmers may have the information prior to the Dec. 10 referendum.

Mrs. Clifford B. Whiting, a friend of Downey, Calif., also was present.

Ruby Hall Wins Football Contest

Predicting winners of football games last week-end was most difficult as was proven when Ruby Hall won first place in The Chief's contest even though he missed three games. Of the large number who entered Mr. Hall was the only one who missed only three games; all others missed four, five, six and even seven.

Second place was won by V. E. Townsend Rt. 1, Blanket, who also placed last week. Mr. Townsend will receive The Chief free for the next two years. Third place was won by Ollie Wilson, 1103 N. Austin.

Turn to the football page, clip the coupon, and mail us your predictions. It is your last chance this year! Good guessing!

Young Homemakers, Young Farmers To Observe Thanksgiving

by JOHN KEETER, Reporter

The Comanche County Young Homemakers and Young Farmers open the banquet season with their fourth annual Thanksgiving banquet to be held Tuesday night, Nov. 26 in the Comanche High School lunchroom. Festivities begin at 7 o'clock.

Heading this year's event will be the program, "Russian Agriculture," a film edited and presented by Ed Bush, representative of the Texas Cotton Ginners Association. Mr. Bush recently made an extended tour of the Soviet Union, making a thorough study of the different phases of the Communist's farming industry. The film makes a detailed and comprehensive report of the agricultural segment of Russian economy and is presented in an imaginative manner by Bush, an accomplished after-dinner speaker.

It should be interesting during this season of Thanksgiving to compare the results of farming under our system of free enterprise, individual initiative, and recognition of our dependence upon and alliance withGod, with that of a country that doesn't recognize religion and buries the individual's efforts in forced mass production.

This banquet is in keeping with the organization's policy of educational programs supplemented with social events.

All members of YH and YF are urged to atten dthis annual event.
